The 1970 Trojan Staff proudly dedicates this book to a lady who has become a tradition, a symbol of Athens High School . . . admired and respected by all who know her . . . loved by those she taught . . . dedicated to the concept of quality education . . . Mrs. Bertha Musick.

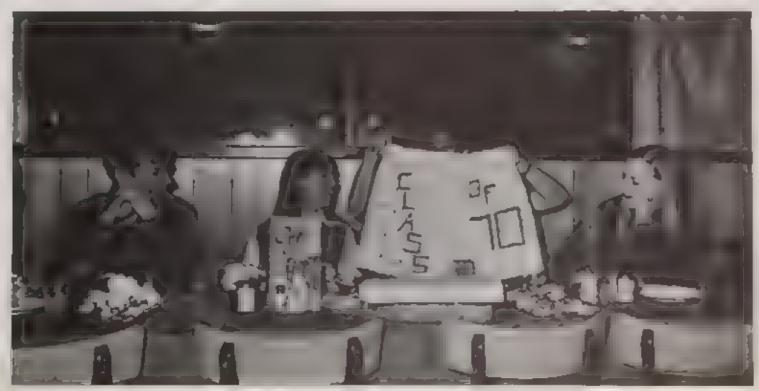

With other people, special friends, everyone around us. Together we passed through an entire year of our lives. Surrounded by crowds or locked in solitude, we were always conscious of the bond with our classmates. We were one in spirit.

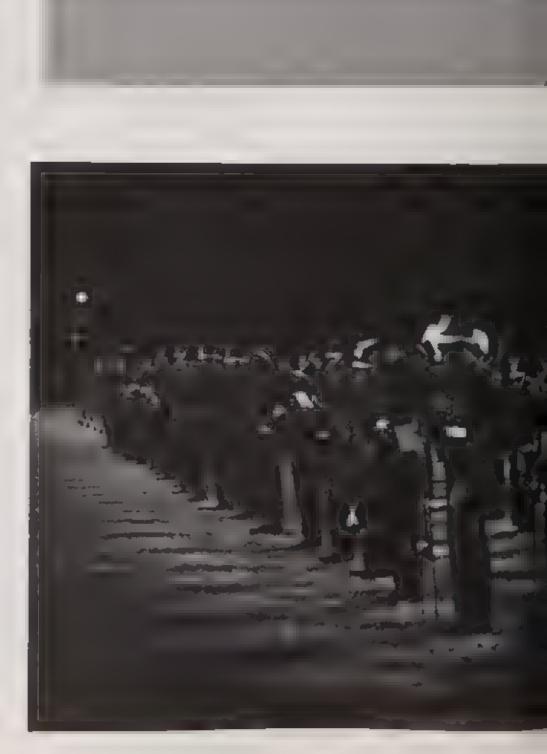

The spirit was within us all, in the exhilaration of victory and the crushing blow of defeat. It compelled us to give a little more, stay a little longer, try a little harder in support of the mighty Trojans. Remember when tension spread and the pressure was on, when the fate of the world seemed to rest on our team. We were proud of Athens High School.

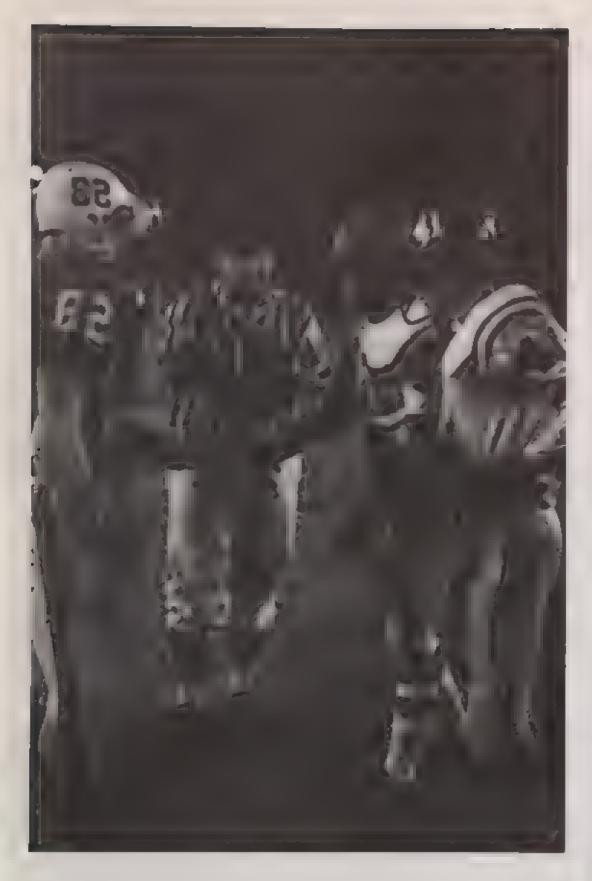

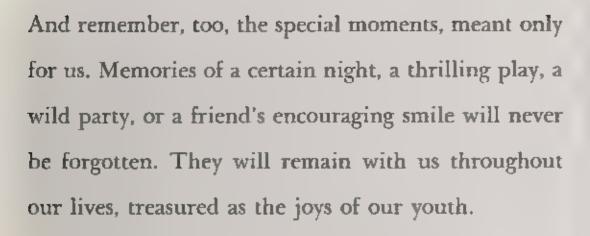

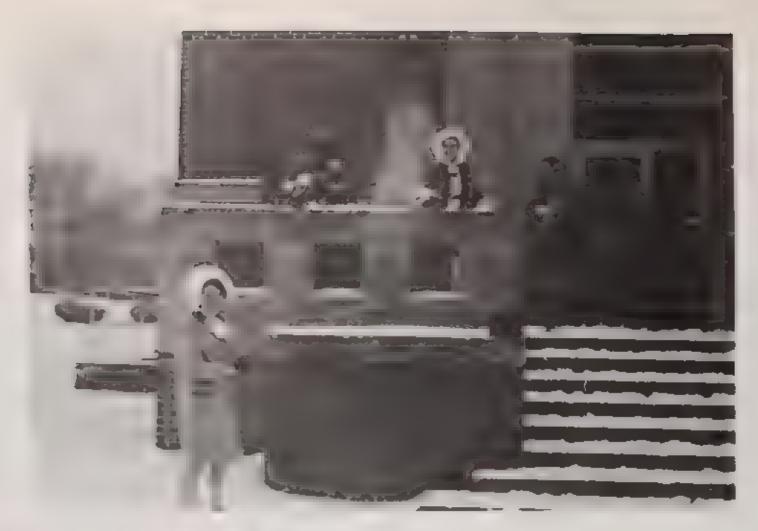

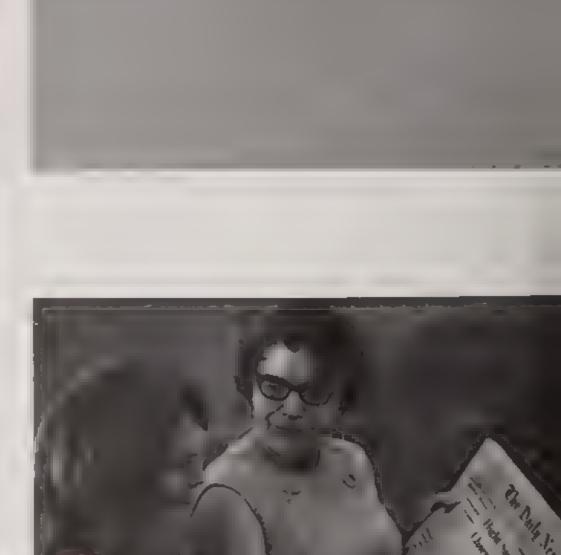

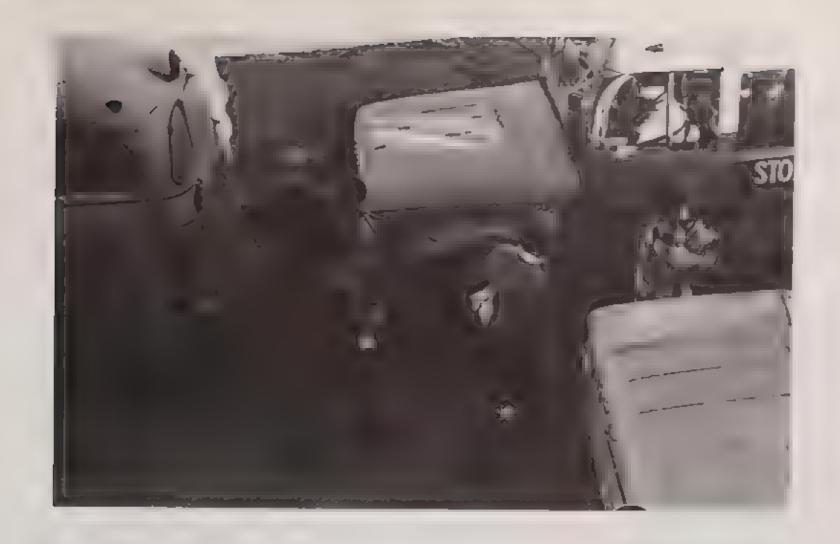

Reflect upon the times, the people, the spirit, and the moments which never leave us. Moments which cannot be relived or removed, but remain to make us as we are Reflect upon this last year of Athens High School.

ORGANIZATIONS

It's great to be an individual—to be able to contribute something unique. But it's even greater to be a part of the whole—to work together, to have a purpose, and to share with others in ideals, dreams, and accomplishments. Working together is life, and we make a start at life in everyday endeavors with our friends in our clubs and groups. It's to the individuals in these groups that this section on ORGANIZATIONS is dedicated.

ACTIVITIES

As if in a dream we live each day of the short time given us, racing over the present in a hurry to reach the future. Suddenly we realize that a most important part of our lives is out of reach. Now there are only memories and past reflections that we try to recapture. These dreams we store away in our hearts, only to be brought out on special days—to remind us of what we once were, what we are now, and what we can be.

COTE & DAVIES POST OFFICE BOX 1000 — DORAVILLE GEORGIA 30040 IVISION OF MCCO

Remember well the events of the past year, they will not reoccur. With the end of year comes the end of a great tradition. Ath

High School as we know it, the home of such memories for generations of classes, will disappear with summer. The spirit which so often rallied us behind the Trojans will fade, for the Trojans will no low exist.

We are at the end of an era. a distinct way of life. As we reflect upon yesterday, we realize that we leaving a unique and genuinely special world of our own behind. But this world has prepared us for a last one. Tomorrow will come, and we will meet it with mixed emotions; sadness, excitement, and hope. The heritage we have gained from our years at 4thens High will help us to enter the future with pride and of fidence. Tomorrow will soon be a memory, as bright and golden as those we recall today. We have everythe before us.
